COMBINED COMPANY PROFILE

JUKI

BRAND ORIGIN STORY

Since 1995, Mark Designers Ltd. has been serving clients across Europe, North America, and Asia with quality and commitment. The company portfolio also expanded by setting up two other production facilities- Mark Wear Limited and Mark 2000 Limited. All of these three state-of-the-art production facilities are fully compliant under the supervision of Accord and RSC. Mark specializes in producing a wide range of top-quality bottoms, both denim plus non-denim for our valued clientele across the globe. Two of our units are also specialized to produce exclusive shirts and jackets for all demographics.

Mark Designers Limited operates as a 100% export-oriented woven garments manufacturer, equipped with modern production facilities designed to meet international quality and compliance standards. The company maintains a structured production workflow integrating cutting, sewing, finishing plus quality control to ensure consistency and efficiency at every stage of manufacturing. With a strong focus on process discipline, skilled workforce & timely delivery, the production team is capable of handling diverse buyer requirements across denim and non-denim categories. Strong quality assurance, production planning, and compliance, enable the company to deliver reliable output while maintaining long-term partnerships with global brands.

MISSION

Committed to manufacturing high-quality garments through skilled craftsmanship, modern technology & ethical practices.

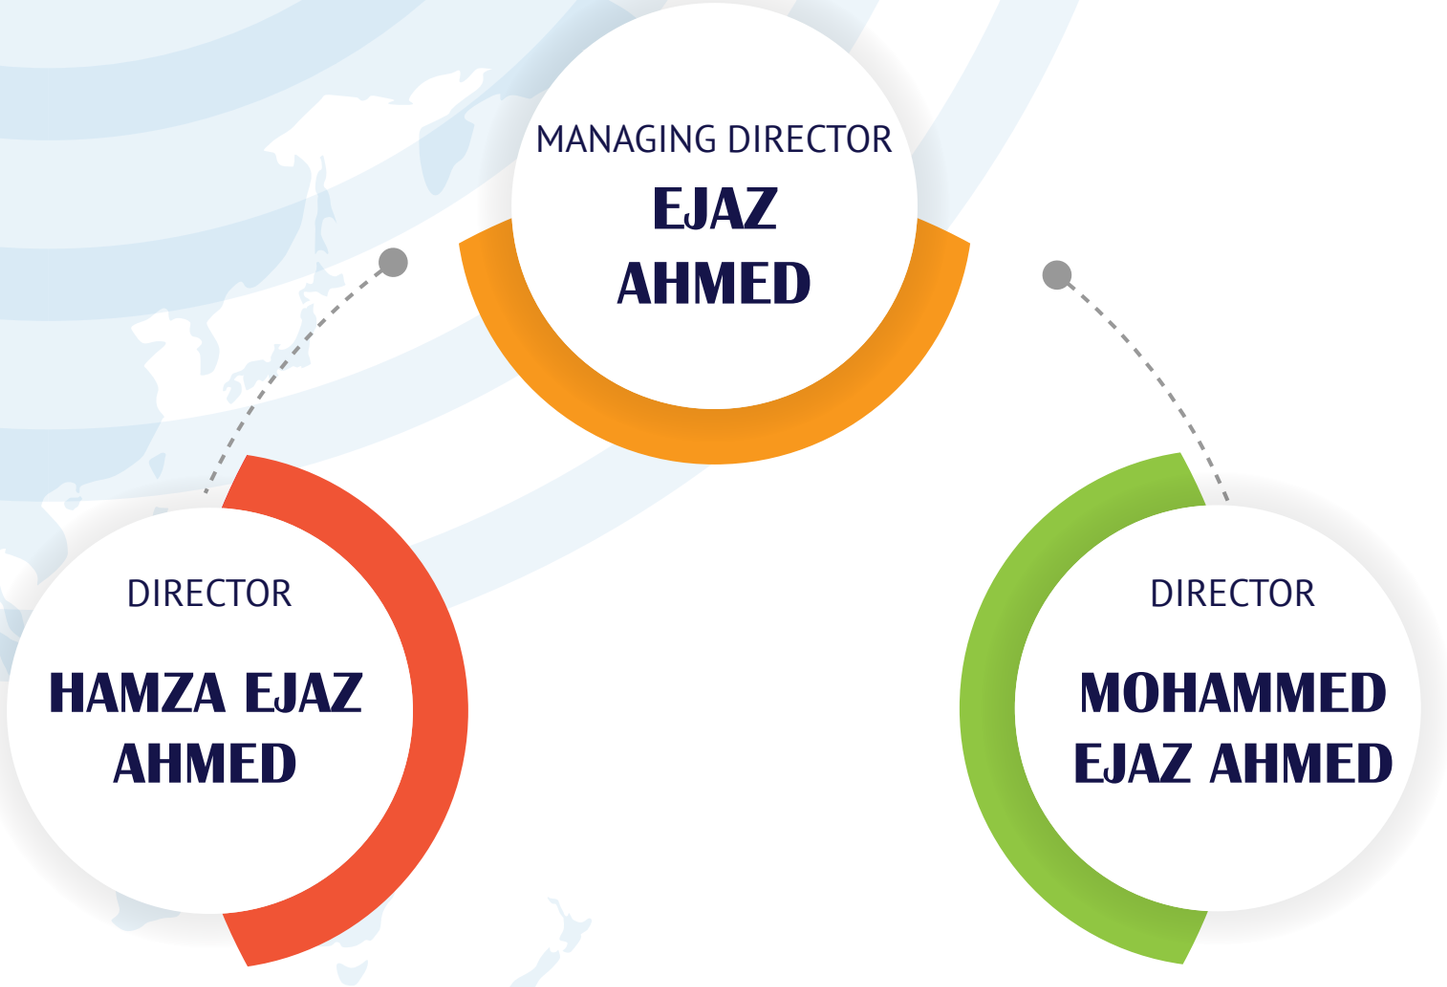

VISION

To provide high quality products following the guidelines set forth by the regulators with value pricing through ethical processes to establish and maintain trustworthy relationships with our clients, vendors and all other stakeholders staying committed to our social responsibilities.

CORE VALUES

Our foundation is built on the trust we have cultivated across our entire supply chain—from our global clients to the craftsmen on our production floor. We are dedicated to ethical denim manufacturing, prioritizing a healthy, supportive work environment and peak operational efficiency. By making sustainability a standard rather than an option, we remain a reliable, forward-thinking partner for the world's leading brands.
